

Stationary Awnings

Riviera Awnings

The Riviera awning is by far our most popular stationary awning style reminiscent of early American architecture with a stunning effect on Ranch style, Colonial, Tuscan and Modern California architecture. Simple yet classic lines make it the most economical stationary awning to manufacture. The Riviera will fit any home décor while maintaining a traditional sense of style.

Our Most Popular Stationary Awning

For years, the Riviera awning has remained the most popular style of stationary awnings in Southern California for its style and versatility.

Function + Style

The Riviera is an economical yet classic stationary awning. Simple, attractive and cost effective, this stationary awning increases aesthetic while adding character to your home.
